

CENTRE D'ARCHIVES DE LA GRANDE ZONE ARGILEUSE
Archival Description

Title: Collection d'ouvrages en histoire régionale

Administrative history or biography: This collection consists of textual documents relating to the Great Northern Ontario Clay Belt, an area that stretches from Longlac to Iroquois Falls and the Timmins region. It includes all the subjects that are relevant to this geographical area. The collection encompasses books published by local authors and publishers, books referring to the region, including historical novels, monographs and research documents: memoirs, theses and reports. Manuscripts written by individuals and by community organizations such as briefs, official publications (government studies, institutional reports, etc.) and reference documents such as directories, bibliographies and genealogical books are also part of the collection. The collection's main objective is to promote and facilitate research pertaining to the Great Clay Belt.

Scope and content: The collection consists of the documents listed in inventory.

Immediate source of acquisition: The collection includes documents provided by several donors.

Language: The documents are written in French and in English.

Restrictions on access: None.

Terms governing use and reproduction: Copyright law applies. Reproduction permitted according to the condition of the documents.

Finding aids: Inventory found below.

Accruals: Further accruals are expected.

Last updated, October 2015.