Archival description

Title: Fonds Journal Le Nord (JLNF)

Dates: 1985-2015.

Extent of descriptive unit: 4.30 m of textual and visual documents.

Administrative history or biography: Established in Hearst, in March 1976, Le Nord, a French-language weekly, has been serving the area since. Initially set up by a group of investors, the newspaper was sold to Omer Cantin, in 1993. In May 2016, CINN, Hearst's community non-profit radio station, bought the weekly. Both are now part of a non-profit organization known as *Les médias de l'épinette noire inc.*¹

Scope and content: This fonds includes records related to the management and work done at the newspaper between 1985-2015.

The fonds contains four series:

- Gestion et fonctionnement (JLNF1)
- Publicité (JLNF2)
- Les Presses du Nord-Est de l'Ontario (JLNF3)
- Documents photographiques (JLNF4)

Sources of information: Omer Cantin and the Journal Le Nord website (www.lenord.on.ca), October 2013.

Physical description: The fonds includes 25 boxes: three boxes of textual documents and 22 boxes of photographic documents, including digital photos on 15 DVD's.

Physical condition: Some textual and photographic documents are damaged.

Immediate source of acquisition: Le Centre d'archives de la Grande Zone argileuse acquired the fonds from Omer Cantin in 2016.

Arrangement: The documents, once acquired, were organized by the archivist. The photographic documents have been classified but some, too damaged, have not been retained for classification.

Language: French.

Restriction on access: The sub-serie "Rapports financiers" contains personal information and cannot be accessed as long as privacy laws apply.

Terms governing use and reproduction: Copyright Act applies. Reproduction permitted depending on the condition of the documents.

Finding aids: A research tool is available. Indexes are also available for subscriptions and photographic documents.

Accruals: No further accruals expected.

Associated materials: Collection Journal Le Nord.
