

CENTRE D'ARCHIVES DE LA GRANDE ZONE ARGILEUSE
Archival description

Title: Collection Nord-Aski

Dates: 1988 to 2008 (approximately).

Extent of descriptive unit: 0.37 m of audiovisual materials.

Administrative history or biography: Founded in 1988, the Regional Economic Development Corporation Nord-Aski includes the communities of Constance Lake, Hearst, Hornepayne, Mattice-Val Côté and surrounding areas, commonly known as the unorganized territories. The organization focuses on the economic diversification of the region it serves. Furthermore, it supports and encourages the creation of new businesses, as well as "the expansion and/or modernization of existing companies through a variety of programs including business development loans, entrepreneurial training, and services designed to address issues impacting rural communities."¹

Scope and content: The collection contains 20 audiovisual documents about various aspects of the area. Some of these documents relate to Nord-Aski's involvement in the region, while others concern economic development issues or promote the area's businesses and attractions.

The collection contains one serie:

Nord-Aski – documents audiovisuels

Sources of information: Audiocassettes are from the collection Nord-Aski. Some information was obtained from a website: 211 Ontario North.

Physical description: The collection contains one box of audiovisual material in DVD format and one box of videocassette.

Immediate source of acquisition: Le Centre d'archives de la Grande Zone argileuse acquired the collection from the Corporation of the Nord-Aski Economic Development, in 2015.

Arrangement: Once acquired, the documents were organized by the archivist. The videocassettes were converted to DVD and were digitized.

Language: The majority of the records are in French, some are in English.

Restriction on access: The donor has imposed no restrictions.

Terms governing use and reproduction: Copyright Act applies. Reproduction permitted pending on the condition of the documents.

Finding aids: An inventory and a brief description of the audiovisual documents exist.

Accruals: Further accruals expected.
